

CONNECTICUT TRANSPORTATION LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

MODULE TWO:

Promoting Professionalism in Your Agency Creating a Culture of Safety

May 21, 2015 8:30 a.m. — 3:30 p.m. Meriden, CT

This module will address how you as a leader impact the safety and professionalism in your agency. The group will work with a set of core competencies of public works professionals and develop practical strategies for enhancing your leadership skills and the skills of your staff. You will return to your agencies with leadership steps that can be taken to implement change. Individual and group exercises will be used to illustrate the concepts. Creative solutions and best practices will be discussed.

Our Instructors are Tiger Mann – Assistant Director of Public Works/Senior Engineer – Town of New Canaan and Joseph Bragaw - Director of Public Works – Town of East Lyme. Tiger and Joseph have many years of experience in senior public works positions and are both graduates of the Transportation Leadership Program's Cohort One.
